GROWERS OF WOOL

Get Together and Form a Pool to Cut Out the Middleman

The wool growers' pool is now a reality. The resolutions formulated by them were adopted at a meeting in Lexington on Tuesday, Dec. 7. Senator J. W. Newman made a statement relative to the saving that would be accomplished by a pool of wool growers, of from 5 to 10 cents per pound.

It was agreed to call a meeting at the various county seats Saturday, Dec. 18, to elect county boards of control, and on Dec. 21 a State meeting will be held in Louisville.

The call was signed by the temporarily elected executive board and in part is as follows:

"To the Wool Growers of Kentucky:-

"Heretofore we have sold our wool separately and have permitted three or four middle men to make each from one to three cents per pound, thereby, losing us not less than five cents per pound. There are from ten to fifteen million pounds of wool clipped annually in this State and if it were pooled and sold direct to the manufacturer, it would cost him no more and save our farmers not less than half a million dollars annually."

The hat pins we have for the Christmas trade are beauties and will be a joy forever to the lady who receives one for a holiday present.

Trains By Phone.

The Louisville & Nashville railroad is installing a complete up-to-date telephone train-dispatching circuit between New Orleans and Mobile. This telephone circuit will be the first in that section. This is the second circuit installed by this road, the former one being between Louisville and Cincinnati, and is giving entirely satisfactory service in all particulars.

STEAMER WRECKED.

Strikes Snag and Sinks in Thirty Feet of Water.

While backing away from a landing at Glen Mary, on the Kentucky river, the steamer Park City, owned by Williams brothers, struck a snag. Half an hour later the boat, with her cargo of whisky consigned to the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company of Louisville, had settled in thirty feet of water.

STERNWHEEL PACKET.

The steamer is a sternwheel packet, built in 1883. They paid $10,000 for the boat, and two months ago spent $2,500 in repairs.

One hundred and ninety-two barrels of whisky, valued at $70 a barrel, taken aboard near Camp Nelson, went down with the steamer. The boat also carried 600 cases of bottled whisky. The value of the bottled whisky is about $7,000, while that in barrels is valued at about $13,400.

Saes Insurance Company.

Hon. O. H. Pollard, of Jackson, has filed suit in the Breathitt Circuit Court against the Frankfort Marine, Accident and Plate Glass Insurance Company of Frankfort for $1,275 damages. The plaintiff's petition alleges that, under his policy of insurance which he held with defendant company, the company bound itself to indemnify him in the case of permanent injury of the nature alleged in his petition in the sum sued for, and alleges that he was permanently injured on October 26, 1908, by the falling of a window of a Louisville & Nashville passenger train while enroute from Louisville to Cincinnati, which crushed the fingers of his right hand so as to cause a permanent injury.

LEFT MILLIONS

To Colleges in All Parts of the World.

John Stewart Kennedy, one of America's little known rich men, who died of whooping cough at his New York residence in November, left bequests of more than $25,000,000 to religious, charitable and educational institutions in his will. The gift is the largest single contribution of its kind ever made. Nearly half of the $25,000,000 goes to institutions connected with the Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Kennedy had been an active member.

Aside from these gifts Mr. Kennedy left approximately $35,000,000 to his wife, his relatives, friends and employees. The widow's share will be about $16,000.

All of the testator's employees received gifts of from $500 to $2,000 each. Among the bequests are:

Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, Presbyterian Church Extension Fund, Presbyterian Hospital, New York, each $2,250,000; Robert College, Constantinople, $1,500,000; Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges, $750,000; Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, New York Public Library, Columbia University, each $2,250,000; United Charities, New York, $1,500,000; American Bible Society, $750,000; Charity Organization Society, $750,000; Yale College, Amherst College, Williams College, Dartmouth College, Bowdoin College, Hamilton College, each $100,000; University of Glasgow, Scotland ("where from my infancy I resided until I came to this country"), Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, Hampton Normal School and Agricultural Institute, each $100,000; Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, Wellesley College, Barnard College, Teachers' College (Columbia University), Elmira College for Women, Elmira, N. WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Mt. Sterling.

Most Mt. Sterling people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious house work; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Mt. Sterling cures more it.

H. W. Willoughby, W. Locust St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I strained my back in doing some heavy lifting about two years ago and from that time on until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. C. Duerson's drug store I was in a miserable condition on account of a lameness in my back. I could scarcely bend over or regain an erect position and I lost one whole season's work on account of this disease. Some times my back ached so severely as to be almost unbearable. I used different remedies but did not find relief until a friend finally recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. By the time I had taken the contents of three or four boxes I was a well man. I have not had the least sign of trouble with my back or kidneys since. I am glad to give a testimonial in favor of such a reliable remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills."

A Point in Weaning.

Pigs are often weaned too early, says the Practical Farmer. They are taken from the sow when not more than five or six weeks old. This means that they get more or less a set-back, even though they should be well cared for. Nor is there any necessity for weaning them so young, even though the dams should be breed twice a year. The period of gestation in a sow is sixteen weeks. Add to this eight weeks for suckling the pigs, and there are still two weeks left to complete the half year. Within those two weeks the sow is likely to come in heat again if she has been properly fed. When the pigs are to be weaned at eight weeks they should, if possible, be taught to take other food, beginning with skim milk when not more than three weeks old. They should get this food at first in a separate place. When crowded for room, two or three boards nailed across a corner of the pen will suffice to protect their food from the sow. As soon as they learn to drink the skim milk, which should be sweet and fresh, other foods may be added. Shorts will answer very well if not too coarse, but ground oats will probably give better results, especially if they have first been steamed. When managed in this way they will have become so used to the food by the time they are eight weeks old that they will grow without interruption.

License of $3,000 Per Year.

There was a called meeting of the Board of Council of Danville, held December 4. There were eleven members of the Board present.

After the meeting was called to order, Councilman Gibbons offered an ordinance requiring a license of $3,000 per year on places that sell Malt, Mead, Near Beer, Maltine, Cream of Hops, etc., etc. The motion was seconded by Councilman Davis, and the ordinance was passed upon its passage and it met with a unanimous vote.

This action will meet with the unanimous approval of the citizens of the community and will make the old Council go down into history. This was the last official act of the old Board.

The Federal Government and the Liquor Traffic.

The federal congress must sooner or later take notice of the activity of the liquor interests and their attempt to control the action of the federal government. They have entered national politics, and will pollute everything that they touch until they are driven out. We have already seen Democratic Congressmen dragged into the Republican camp by these interests, when a fight was being made over the rules of the house, for there is no question of the activity of the liquor interests in supporting Cannonism. Federal licenses are now issued to those who desire to sell liquor in territory in which local licenses are denied, and the brewers and distillers are still using interstate commerce to nullify the laws of the various States. Surely there can be no excuse for the issue of federal licenses to the local authorities have prohibited the sale of liquor. The charge for a federal license is $25 per year, and when a federal license is issued upon the payment of this sum the federal government either obtains the money without consideration or it enters into partnership with the violator of the law.

The business panic and the removal of the railroad division from here to Dauphin, which occurred shortly after the dry victory, was made the basis of the return of the saloons.

Strangers were in town and it is said they were representatives of the wholesale liquor houses. Irregularity is charged in South Somersett. This practice gave a majority of 152 for saloons.

If the charges can be proven the result may be changed. Somersett had nineteen saloons when the town was voted dry three years ago. The county has been dry for many years.

License of $3,000 Per Year.

There was a called meeting of the Board of Council of Danville, held December 4. There were eleven members of the Board present.

This action will meet with the unanimous approval of the citizens of the community and will make the old Council go down into history. This was the last official act of the old Board.

By what logic can one justify the action of the Federal Government in permitting interstate commerce to be used to nullify State regulation of the liquor traffic? If a State can be trusted to protect property and to prescribe rules for the descent of estates, can it not be entrusted with the power to regulate the sale and use of liquor? If the State can be entrusted with the enactment and enforcement of criminal laws, even to the exacting of the death penalty, can it not be entrusted with the power to control the liquor traffic?

It can, of course, be taken for granted that the liquor interests will oppose any legislation which will be its object the protection of society from the evils of intemperance, and they will, as they have in the past, threaten any party which refuses to bow down to the god which they have set up, but the Democratic party can better afford to invite their opposition than grovel in the dust to secure their approval. — The Commander, December 10.

Oil Heat

Without Smoke

No matter how sensitive your olfactory nerves may be, or under what working conditions you encounter the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

you'll not detect the slightest odor of smoke.

The Perfection Oil Heater neither smokes nor diffuses odor. The new positively prevents both. Repeated tests during its incipiency and development numerically attest that it had been pronounced perfect by the inventor, demonstrating its utility and sure effectiveness.

The wick cannot be turned beyond the point of its greatest effectiveness. It looks automatically to the greatest heat-producing flame without a sign of smoke or smell. Removed in a moment for cleaning.

Solid brass body holds 4 quarts of oil—sufficient to give out a glowing heat for 9 hours—soil I brass with carriers—dinner top—cool hand-off indicator.

Children Can Not Go Back To Mother.

If Fayette Circuit Court arguments were made before Judge Parker by Attorney Hobbs, representing the local Knights of Pythias' Widows' and Orphans' Home, and J. Craig Shelby representing Mrs. Flora Stewart in the habeas corpus proceedings by which Mrs. Stewart sought to have her three children released from the Home.

Judge Parker is rendering the decision in the case said:

"There can be no doubt but that the children have been cared for at the Knights of Pythias' Home far better than it would be possible for Mrs. Stewart to care for them in present circumstances. We'll be able to do for them. Including their food and children she would have five persons to support or a salary ranging from $2.50 to $4 a week. While the children expressed a desire to return to their mother, I feel that they are not competent to decide what course is best for them to pursue. The evidence in the case shows that the Home has expended on each child an annual sum of $179, an amount larger than the State spends on an aged inmate person. The children are well clothed. While they express a desire to return to their mother they seem cheerful and contented with the conditions at the Home."

Mrs. Stewart resides at Oliver Springs, Tenn. She is the widow of Luther Stewart, a victim of a mine accident which occurred at Straight Creek, Ky.

The Strong Thought of Self.
The strong thought of self is a deadly insatiable—it is as restive as human contact; as a live wire. Mrs. Stewart's coming is "The Ray of Light."

At One Shot.

A specimen of great imaginative gifts and fad of telling his exploits related that at one shot he had brought down two partridges and a hare. His explanation was that such birds as those were not fit to be eaten. A man patented device, which consists of a pipe running through the stalk to the outside of the stable, is designed to cure this. In case of fire a turn of a handle opens the valve, and a stream of water pours over the head and shoulders of the horse, which drives him into the gangway, from which it becomes a comparative easy matter to lead him into the street.

Forget.

Ryer—Why so sad, old man?

Dyer—Somebody promised to loan me $10 to-day and I've forgotten who it was.

COURTESY IN THE STREET CAR

Something of a Reversal of the General Rule.

The young man looks up at the young woman, and the old man with a smile on his head a scene that was taking place in an "L" car in the homeward rush. His companion looked and saw a slender, handsomely powdered woman offer her seat to a young man who, in the crush, was standing in front of her and was trying an armful of large, heavy books.

The young man looks up at the young woman, and the old man with a pleasant little smile, which was all he could accomplish in lieu of raising his hat with his heavily imbedded hands.

"Well, then," said the lady composedly, "take my seat, Mr. Bailey."

"That would certainly be kind, if you don't mind," consented the youth, relinquishing his load, and when the lady had seated herself, turned her eyes to him, this time for her thoughts with fully as much gratitude as a woman would have expressed for a similar courtesy from a man—perhaps with more appreciation the experience being more rare.

AT HARVARD FIFTY YEARS AGO

N. S. Shaler Tells Us of the Life at a Senior.

He was a senior in Harvard college and had a well-deserved name for scholarship in the classics, as well as for a miscellaneous assortment of talents and knowledge. He was reported to be the best player of the game of checkers in the country, knew the political situation of the Union amazingly well; was learned in pugilism, having at his tongue's end the story of all the prize-fights of recent times, without which was the merest literature; and was a well-read man. On the first morning with him, after going over the best of what I could and could not do, he asked me if I could box. I pleaded guilty to some knowledge of the ignoble art. At that time, I had not the faintest idea of what I thought that I would be lowest in his eyes by the confession. To my surprise, indeed to my horror, for I had a swordsmanship's contempt for the business, he insisted on my having a bout with him at once.—N. S. Shaler's Autobiography, in the Atlantic.

First Car Is Run.

The first car to be run over the track of the new interurban line between Lexington and Nicholasville made the trip December 5, seven miles from Lexington and beyond the Jessamine county line.

The truck has been laid about seven miles out of Lexington and about three miles out of Nicholasville. There is yet a gap of two or two and a half miles. The line is expected to be completed and cars running between Lexington and Nicholasville by the middle of January, dependent on the weather.

Wanted: 50 Men and Women.

W. S. Lloyd, the enterprising druggist, is advertising today for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half price offered in his making of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia and get a fifty cent package at half price, 25 cents.

So positive is he of the remarkable power of this specific to cure these diseases, as well as sick headaches and liver troubles, that he agrees to refund the money to any customer whom this medicine does not quickly relieve and cure.

With Dr. Howard's specific at hand, you can eat what you want and have no fear of ill consequences. It strengthens the stomach, gives perfect digestion, regulates the bowels, creates an appetite, and makes life worth the living.

This is an unusual opportunity to obtain 60 doses of the best medicine ever made for half its regular price, with the personal guarantee of a well known business man to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

Not What They Seamed.
"Your goose is cooked," cried one of two sparsely dressed young women who were not unattractive, recompensing with joy at each other's misfortunes; they were merely two friendly cooks parting ways of progress.

A Romance in Song.

It was "In the Good Old Summertime" that "Annie Laurie" was sitting in "The Old Arm Chair." "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" and the "Mocking Bird" was singing in the boughs above her head, and "Just as the Sun Went Down" "Bill Bailey" came from "Down in Dixie" with the "Three Leaves of Shamrock" tied up in the "Little Old Red Shawl" and placing a "Sweet Bushel of Daisies" from the "Valley of Kentucky" in her hand said "If You Love Me, Darling, Tell Me with Your Eyes."

She suggested they take a moonlight ride "Way Down upon the Suwanee River" "On a Bicycle Built For Two, and it was then he asked her to be his wife. She accepted and they went home immediately to "Break the News to Mother" in the "Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane."

Their wedding took place in her "Home, Sweet Home," "When Autumn Bids Summer Good-Bye," "Nellie Gray" was maid of honor and "Yankee Doodle" was best man. "Sweet Marie" and Annie Rooney" were bridesmaids, and the flower girls were the "Two Little Girls in Blue." The ceremony was performed in "The Church Across the Way." "After the Ball Was Over" they left mid "Showers of Blessings" for a trip "Mid the Green Fields of Virginia." "When the Harvest Days Are Over" they will return to their "Old Kentucky Home" "Down on the Farm" and go to housekeeping "In the Little Rustic Cottage By the Stream."

America produced $95,000,000 worth of gold last year, and $9,000,000,000 worth of agricultural products. There's a nice pot of gold to be dug up in the course of a year on every well-tilled farm, and it grows each year where the soil is treated as an infant industry instead of being robbed as ruthlessly as the ultimate consumer is robed by the Payne law.

Many beautiful and useful presents for Christmas gifts now await you at the Louisville Store.

To Save Horses from Fire.

When a horse is released from his stall during a fire, he will not leave the stable, for he will not leave the stable, for he believes himself to be safe. A man patented device, which consists of a pipe running through the stall to the outside of the stable, is designed to cure this. In case of fire a turn of a handle opens the valve, and a stream of water pours over the head and shoulders of the horse, which drives him into the gangway, from which it becomes a comparative easy matter to lead him into the street.

It Sure Is.

As a striking illustration of what it is to be poor, there was recently a picture on exhibition in one of the show-windows of Danville that certainly "took the cake" for aptitude and touch the spot. It was a representation of a small boy, holding in the palm of his open hand four pennies, and contemplating with longing and wistful eyes a sign which read: "Soda water five cents." And underneath the figure of the child his mournful ejaculation, "Ain't it hell to be poor!" This picture so struck the fancy and the financial condition of one of the Darville football enthusiasts upon his return from Lexington the day after Thanksgiving game that he immediately borrowed the price of the picture, purchased it, and carried it around town in order to enlist the sympathy of his friends.

When the cause of kicking can only be assigned to vice or an acquired bad habit, the following little arrangement will be found useful, says Farming World, and, at the same time, simple, harmless, effective, inexpensive and easily applied. A strap about an inch wide should be buckled around each hind leg a little above the hock, sufficiently tight to compress the hamstring.

The animal cannot kick, and if the flies are troublesome and cause her to switch her tail, the best plan is to either strap it to her leg or secure it to one of the straps with a piece of cord. Use the straps every time the animal is milked, and after three weeks or so omit, to ascertain whether a cure has been affected or not.
